The background of the cover is a colorful illustration. In the foreground, there's a large, stylized orange wave shape. Behind it, a detailed illustration of St. Basil's Cathedral in Moscow is visible, with its iconic multi-colored domes. To the left of the cathedral is a clock tower. In the sky above the cathedral, there's a white commercial airplane flying towards the right and a hot air balloon with a red and orange striped pattern. The sky is a mix of light blue and white clouds.
